Exploring the Potential of a
Chesapeake
Bay National Recreation Area

ALL UNITS OF THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM ARE BOUND BY THE 1916 ORGANIC ACT AS AMENDED EXCEPT WHEN DIRECTED BY CONGRESS.

...to conserve the scenery and the natural and historic objects and the wild life therein and to provide for the enjoyment of the same in such manner and by such means as will leave them unimpaired for the enjoyment of future generations that these areas, though distinct in character, are united through their inter-related purposes and resources into one national park system as cumulative expressions of a single national heritage...authorization of activities shall be construed and the protection, management, and administration of these areas shall be conducted in light of the high public value and integrity of the National Park System and shall not be exercised in derogation of the values and purposes for which these various areas have been established, except as may have been or shall be directly and specifically provided by Congress..”
